Five Day Art and Culture Visit to Edinburgh & Glasgow

Wednesday 1st May to Sunday 5th May 2019

£554 pp shared room

£599 pp single room (includes single person supplement)

Price includes 4 nights bed & breakfast and driver's gratuity

An opportunity to visit the exciting and unique cities of Edinburgh and Glasgow.

Edinburgh: The main galleries each have wonderful collections of paintings and sculpture: the Scottish National Gallery of Art and the Royal Scottish Academy are in the centre. The Scottish National Gallery of Modern Art is a shuttle bus journey away. The Scottish National Portrait Gallery is housed in the New Town, near the centre. Other attractions include Edinburgh Castle, the Royal Botanic Garden, the new Scottish Parliament building and the Palace of Holyrood House at the bottom of the Royal Mile.

Glasgow and the surrounding areas include: The Kelvingrove Art Gallery and Museum and the Modern Art Gallery. Glasgow is also renowned as the home of many of Charles Renee Mackintosh works including The Hunterian Art Gallery and Museum and The Willow Tea Rooms (which he designed) in Sauchiehall Street.

Itinerary

May 1st: Leave Bristol 8.30 am from All Saints' Church Pembroke Road, Clifton. 90 minute lunch break in the Lake District, then proceed to the Holiday Inn Edinburgh City West where we shall stay for 4 nights.

May 2nd: A day in Edinburgh (coach available)

May 3rd: An optional day in Glasgow (travel by coach)

May 4th: A second optional day in Glasgow taking in Renee Mackintosh works (coach available)

May 5th: Travel back to Bristol for 7 - 8pm. Lunch stop to be advised. Drop off location: All Saints' Church Pembroke Road, Clifton.

(The itinerary is designed to offer maximum flexibility so that one can spend 1, 2 or 3 days in Edinburgh)
